
Criminal Defense (incl. DWI)

Attorneys

Timothy P. McElduff, Jr.

Alana R. Bartley

Our criminal defense attorneys routinely represent clients who have been arrested by or are being investigated by law enforcement, with a significant concentration in all aspects of DWI and other alcohol and drug-related driving offenses. The experience and unique insight of our criminal attorneys allow them to quickly evaluate the charges and develop a defense strategy aimed at protecting our clients' rights and minimizing the impact of the criminal justice process may have on their lives and reputations while reaching a favorable disposition.

If you or your loved one has been arrested and charged with a crime, we encourage you to contact us today.