Drake Loeb PLLC attorneys provide vigorous representation of municipalities that are respondents in Article 78 and other similar proceedings where there is a challenge to a municipal decision. When an individual or an entity petitions a state court to review the decisions or actions of a municipal board or official, Drake Loeb PLLC is uniquely experienced to handle this form of litigation. Many of the attorneys in this area also act as the attorneys for town boards, zoning boards and planning boards for municipalities throughout the Hudson Valley.
