Drake Loeb is pleased to announce that Partner Marianna R. Kennedy has accepted an invitation to serve on the Executive Committee of the SUNY Orange Foundation, and as its Vice Chair.

The SUNY Orange Foundation supports the critical mission of SUNY Orange, and is committed to working to generate funds and build resources to enhance lifelong learning and engagement opportunities for SUNY Orange students, alumni and the community at large. "At this critical time for community colleges, I am so very excited to participate in a leadership role to help further the Foundation's important missions," she notes.

Ms. Kennedy has a deep commitment to higher education, serving on the SUNY Orange Foundation Board and President of the Geraldine Warner Foundation Board for several years, and having previously served on the Board of Trustees of Mount Saint Mary College. She concentrates her practice in the area of business law and transactions and is a lifelong resident of the Hudson Valley.
