
Esteemed Drake Loeb Paralegal Eve Flanigan Retires

Winter 2021

Longtime Drake Loeb PLLC paralegal Eve Flanigan has retired effective 1/1/2022 after forty years of distinguished service to the firm and its clients. For almost all of her tenure, she served under Drake Loeb's well-known partner Jim Loeb as a legal assistant and, later, paralegal. Her paralegal work in the areas of municipal law, corporate law, and real estate assisted many of the firm's major clients over the years, including the Town of Cornwall and Sterling Forest. The firm recently enjoyed a luncheon recognizing her seniority and contributions to the firm, and plans on a larger celebration in June 2022. We know everyone she has touched over the years both within and outside of Drake Loeb will miss her knowledge, work ethic, and unmistakable humor. The firm wishes her all the best as she embarks on this exciting new chapter.
