
McElduff Joins Inspire - Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association Board

Fall 2015

Inspire - Orange County Cerebral Palsy Association ("Inspire") has announced that Timothy P. McElduff, Jr. has been selected to serve on its Board of Directors. Inspire is an organization designed to serve people, particularly children, who have special challenges in order to maximize their capabilities to lead fuller lives. Tim responds, "I am extremely excited, particularly as a father of three, to be a part of this worthwhile organization. I look forward to supporting Inspire through this new role." Tim is a partner with Drake Loeb PLLC concentrating in areas of litigation.