
Baseball Miracles Welcomes Pascale to Advisory Board

Summer 2018

Baseball Miracles recently welcomed Nicholas A. Pascale as its newest member of their advisory board and team. He will be providing legal and strategic leadership for Baseball Miracles, a non-profit organization that teaches baseball and softball to economic and environmentally disadvantaged boys and girls throughout the world.

Pascale has devoted his time to other local and youth-oriented charities and organizations in the Hudson Valley including the Marlboro High School Mock Trial Team and the Marlboro Youth Recreational Soccer League. He concentrates his law practice on commercial and civil litigation matters.
