Drake Loeb PLLC was pleased to support the Newburgh Chapter of UNICO National's recent 5th Annual Sal Cracchiolo Memorial Clambake and Fest D'Italia. In attendance were Drake Loeb Partners Timothy P. McElduff, Jr. and Ralph L. Puglielle, Jr. The event is in honor of one of the Chapter's most dedicated and beloved members and monies raised from it fund local and national programs like medical research, scholarships, literary projects and community services. UNICO National is the largest Italian-American service organization in the United States.

Puglielle is a long-time member of Newburgh UNICO and serves as its first Vice President and Legal Counsel; he is a partner at Drake Loeb PLLC with a concentration in civil and commercial litigation matters. McElduff is a litigation partner at Drake Loeb PLLC who is currently running for Orange County Surrogate.
