
Drake Loeb Announces the Election of New Partners

Attorneys

Alana Bartley

Aaron Fitch

Winter 2022

The partners of Drake Loeb PLLC announced today that they have named Alana R. Bartley and Aaron C. Fitch as partners to its law firm effective January 1, 2022.

"Our new partners represent a diverse set of skills, experience and backgrounds," said Managing Partner Glen L. Heller. "They are critical to our ability to strategically grow and to support exceptional service for our clients. In terms of our focus on investing in the future of the firm, Alana and Aaron are key."

Bartley represents individuals and businesses with litigation matters primarily focused on commercial, real estate, and creditor rights issues. She provides representation to one of the country's leading purchasers and servicers of loans, who hold over $1 billion in loan portfolio investments.

Fitch represents individuals, businesses, and banks in areas such as lending, real estate, estate planning, business formation, leases, and mergers & acquisitions. In 2021, he was named a Top Business and Financial Law Attorney by Hudson Valley Magazine.
