
Drake Loeb Congratulates Meghan R. LoCicero on New Role as Associate Attorney

Attorneys

Meghan LoCicero

Spring 2022

Drake Loeb PLLC is pleased to announce the New York bar admission of their law clerk, Meghan LoCicero. Ms. LoCicero will now continue her work at the firm as an associate attorney.

Born and raised in New Windsor, Meghan obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science as well as a Paralegal Certificate from Marist College. She was awarded her law degree from the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University, where she graduated cum laude and was a Senior Associate on the Pace Environmental Law Review. Upon her return to the area, Meghan began her legal career with Drake Loeb PLLC.

Meghan and her husband reside in New Windsor and volunteer their time at Maplebrook School in Amenia, which provides education for children and young adults with learning differences. Her law practice will focus primarily on the representation of clients in the areas of municipal law, real estate, and business transactions.